Only 10 day to go – WHOOOP UCI Mountain Bike World Cup in Lenzerheide

«Let's Celebrate» in ten days at the WHOOOP UCI Mountain Bike World Cup presented by le Gruyère AOP in Lenzerheide. From 19. to 21. September 2025, Lenzerheide will be celebrating world-class sport, entertaining side events, and huge emotions.

An emotional farewell

Lenzerheide will be the venue for several retirements: Nino Schurter and Thomas Litscher will be competing in their last World Cup races – a very special moment for the cycling community. Camille Balanche will also be bidding farewell to the World Cup stage at the end of the season and will be competing in her last home World Cup in Lenzerheide. For fans, this is the very last chance to see three iconic figures of Swiss mountain biking live in Lenzerheide.

Side Events for everyone

In addition to the thrilling races, a variety of side events will keep the atmosphere lively and action-packed: the Steiböckli Cup will see the youngest riders at the start, the Whip-Off Contest will celebrate the most stylish jumps, and the Shimano Test Area offers the chance to try out the latest e-bike models. The expo area will feature numerous exhibitor stands, team trucks, and a wide range of food and drink options. In the evening, the party continues in the Party Dome with concerts and DJ sets, ensuring a lively atmosphere until late into the night. This ensures that the weekend will be an unforgettable experience for the whole family and bike fans of all ages.

Accreditation – important information for media representatives:

Media professionals who wish to be accredited for the WHOOOP UCI Mountain Bike World Cup from September 19 to 21, 2025, need a personal profile on the WBD media accreditation platform. Anyone who does not yet have such a profile must register on the platform in good time. Accreditation is not possible without a personal profile.

Accreditation will close on 12 September 2025, after which accreditation applications will no longer be processed.
